Evidence that covers longer periods of time

Documents that cover a longer period of time between 2 dates include:

- annual bank statement or account summary, showing at least 6 months of payments received or spending in the UK
- employer letter confirming employment and evidence that the employer is genuine, for example, their Companies House number
- council tax bill
- letter or certificate from your school, college, university or other accredited educational or training organisation showing the dates you enrolled, attended and completed your course
- invoice for fees from your school, college, university or other accredited educational or training organisation and evidence of payment

- document showing a UK address from a student finance body in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland or from the Student Loans Company
- residential mortgage statement or rental agreement and evidence of payment
- letter from a registered care home confirming your residence there
- employer pension contributions
- annual business account of a self-employed person
- a P60 for a 12-month period – your P60 shows the tax you've paid on your salary in the tax year (6 April to 5 April). We may ask you for additional evidence to confirm that you were resident here for at least 6 months of that period.
- a P45 showing the length of your previous employment. You should get a P45 from your employer when you stop working for them.

Evidence that covers shorter periods of time

These documents count as evidence for 1 month if they have a single date on. They can be used to cover a longer period of time if they have a start and end date covering longer than a month.

- bank statement showing payments received or spending in the UK
- payslip for a UK-based job
- water, gas or electricity bill showing a UK address
- landline or mobile telephone, TV or internet bill showing a UK address
- domestic bill, such as for home repairs, vet's services or insurance, and evidence of payment
- card or letter from your GP, hospital or other healthcare professional confirming appointments you have made or attended
- letter from a government department, public service or charity that show you dealt with them on a particular date or for a particular period (for example Job Centre Plus or Citizens Advice)
- passport stamp confirming entry at the UK border
- used travel ticket confirming you entered the UK from another country
- invoice for work you have done in the UK and evidence of payment
